

Additional Policies for Seasonal Campers

- Seasonal camping fees are due in full on or before April 15th - Seasonal Fees are Non-Refundable after April 15th.
- License of Occupation and the Liability Waivers must be signed by March 15th .
- License of Occupation is only renewed each year if your account is in good standing, your RV & assigned site is maintained, and the adherence to the Rules & Policies have been followed. Seasonal Campers do NOT have in / out privileges with their RV.
- Storage of your RV on site is included when you pay your Reservation Fee for the following season. This fee reserves your site, locks in your rate for the following season and includes access to the campground until the end of September. It is non-refundable and non-transferable. Additional fees may apply.
- A Security Deposit is due at the beginning of each season. This will be held on account until the end of the season and may be used for any incidentals on your account.
- Only one household on the License of Occupation. This consists of up to two adults and up to 2 dependent children (17 & under) at the same address. Additional fees apply for any additional family members of the same household.

RV INSURANCE

Every RV must have valid insurance with a min $1 million liability. Proof of insurance is to be provided annually.

VISITORS

- Seasonal fees do not include visitors; daily & overnight fees will apply. Visitors are required to park in the front visitor parking lot. Day Visitors are to leave by 10 pm. Seasonal campers are responsible for their visitors at all times. Visitors may be limited. *Visitors are NOT ALLOWED to bring their pets to the campground.

Please Note: You must notify the Office in advance of any visitors. All visitors require a Liability Waiver once per season prior to their arrival (available on our website) and all visitors must check in at the Office upon arrival.

SUBLETTING & RENTALS

Subletting or renting out your RV is prohibited. Only registered names on the License of Occupation can occupy the site, or those who have registered and paid for a Seasonal Family Pass.

RV SALES

RV Sales are ONLY permitted through coordination with the campground; contact the Office. Advertising or showing RV with the intent to sell is strictly prohibited while on the property. If you want to sell without the coordination of the campground, the RV must be removed from the premises in order to advertise, show, and sell (no exceptions).

PERMANENTLY REMOVING RV
